Code of Conduct

For all Youth trips with Covenant Presbyterian Church

- I will respect the spiritual growth of others and goals of the trip by participating in all scheduled activities.
- I will respect and follow the directives of the adult leaders, other church leaders and any staff at the facility in which we are staying.
- To respect the community I will dress and behave modestly.
- I will respect the place in which I am staying by not damaging any property knowing that if I do I will be held responsible for the cost of the repairs.
- I will respect others by not using abusive language or engaging in reckless behavior that could cause harm (emotional or physical) to my-self or others.
- For my safety I will not leave the designated living areas without the permission of an adult leader.
- Understanding that every individual needs different amounts of sleep I will respect the lights out and quiet times every night.
- I will not have in my possession or use: fireworks, firearms, illegal drugs, tobacco products or alcohol. And I will obey all the laws of the community and state in which I am staying. I know that illegal activity will not be tolerated and that local police will be called if necessary.
- I will respect others by avoiding inappropriate sexual activity. And will not engage in sexual misconduct – which can include inappropriate jokes, comments, touching, or watching inappropriate material on TV.

Breaking this code of conduct may result in my being sent home at my own or my parent's expense.
