Code of Conduct

For all Youth trips with Covenant Presbyterian Church

- I will respect the spiritual growth of others and goals of the trip by participating in all scheduled activities.
- I will respect and follow the directives of the adult leaders, other church leaders and any staff at the facility in which we are staying.
- To respect the community I will dress and behave modestly.
- I will respect the place in which I am staying by not damaging any property knowing that if I do I will be held responsible for the cost of the repairs.
- I will respect others by not using abusive language or engaging in reckless behavior that could cause harm (emotional or physical) to me or others.
- For my safety I will not leave the designated living areas without the permission of an adult leader.
- Understanding that every individual needs different amounts of sleep I will respect the lights out and quiet times every night.
- I will not have in my possession or use: fireworks, firearms, illegal drugs, tobacco products or alcohol. And I will obey all the laws of the community and state in which I am staying. I know that illegal activity will not be tolerated and that local police will be called if necessary.
- I will respect others by avoiding inappropriate sexual activity. And will not engage in sexual misconduct – which can include inappropriate jokes, comments, touching, or watching inappropriate material.

Breaking this code of conduct may result in my being sent home at my own or my parent's expense.
